

Welcome

Written by Thomas

Thursday, 26 March 2009 10:52 - Last Updated Friday, 27 March 2009 11:17

Located next to the Great Strasburg Emporium, one of the largest antique malls in Virginia, The Strasburg Flea Market has 5 rooms and over 40 dealers of antiques, collectables, knick knacks, bric-a-brac and what its.

Since being taken over by Sally Rutherford in 2001, the Strasburg Flea Market has grown to be one of the best, if best, indoor flea markets in the Shenandoah Valley. Sally brings a lifetime of yard saling and flea marketing to her work and has several booths of her own.

Featuring a little bit of everything under the sun, the Strasburg Flea Market has been noted for having, among other things, one of the best collections of LPs for sale in the Tri-State area. We have comics, coins, books, stamps, glassware, sport and non-sport cards, videos, DVDs, video games, CDs, Star Wars ... the list goes on and on.

The Strasburg Flea Market is within walking distance to several restaurants and is a short drive from several points of interest in Strasburg, including: The Stonewall Jackson Museum, Crystal Caverns, and many more stores, museums and sites,

So come on in and see what you cannot live without. Just be warned ... you'll probably stay all day!